*The March Inland:
Origins of the ILWU
Warehouse Division,
1934-1938*

“No unionized Bay Area warehouse workers existed in 1933. Five years later, nearly all of the region’s 8,500 freight handlers belonged to one of the largest and most powerful union locals in the country.” With our revived efforts to organize the unorganized today, join us as we study Harvey Schwartz’s classic work on the birth of Local 6 and the ILWU Warehouse Division.
